Ingenious, involved, jovial...

His name is Manuel, but in Málaga everyone knows him as “Larios”... Because you always bump into him along Calle Larios.

His passions are jazz and painting, and he actively supports new talents in both of these fields. Some of his friends might include: José Tomás (bullfighter), Antonio Banderas (actor) and María Barranco (actress).

HOW TO GET THERE

FROM THE AIRPORT

If you arrive by plane, you may take a taxi from the airport itself. Be sure to tell the driver that you are going to the “Plaza de la Constitución”. Alternatively, you can take the blue bus line 19, which will leave you at the end of Alameda Principal, just next to the Marqués de Larios statue (note: this is not the last stop!)

BY CAR

Parking: near the hotel there are several public garages where you can park your car. However, we advise you that, since Calle Marqués de Larios is a pedestrian street, you will not be able to bring your car any closer than the plaza de la Constitución (ask at the hotel).

GETTING AROUND THE CITY ON PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Bus lines: Lines 11, 32, 33, 34 and 35. Also 1, 3, 16, 10 and 20.
