

Cosmopolitan, night-loving, modern...

He lives just alongside the city's Gran Vía avenue. He enjoys his sophisticated urban surroundings and frequently partakes of the glamour of the area's famous cocktail bars.

As an actor, he is always ready for anything. When it comes to travelling, the farther the better. Some of his friends might include: Julio Medem (film director), Paz Vega (actress) and Lorena Berdún (television show host).

ROOMS

74 Rooms: Standard, Deluxe, Junior Suite, Suite

LOCATION

Lying in the heart of the Chueca District, this totally renovated rationalist-style building is located in one of the city centre's brightest squares, the Plaza de Vázquez de Mella at number 12, just at the periphery of Madrid's Gran Vía avenue, between the streets Fuencarral and Barquillo. Indeed, this is the ideal spot for urbanites with a passion for art, gastronomy and entertainment, thanks to its proximity to the city's most important museums, including the Prado, the Thyssen Bornemisza and the Reina Sofía, as well as the historic centre's famous restaurants and Madrid's top theatres and cinemas.

SERVICES

Breakfast buffet included, served until 12:00 am / Room service / Safe / Minibar / Laundry and dry cleaning service / Individual heating and air conditioning / Free Wi-Fi Internet access / Conference room rental / Rooms adapted for the disabled / Reception open 24 hours / Reservations for restaurants, car rentals, taxi to the airport or any other destination, outings, etc. / Airline, train, bus ticket bookings / Wake up service

DECORATION

Tomás Alía's genius truly reveals itself in the new Room Mate Oscar, where trendy, avant-garde spaces bring together light, curves, colours, large-format images, graffiti and more. Settings that are sure to leave nobody indifferent.

ÓSCAR RECOMMENDS

Shopping along the streets Fuencarral and Hortaleza / A stroll along Gran Vía, Plaza de Cibeles and Puerta de Alcalá / Paying a visit to the Círculo de Bellas Artes (fine arts cultural centre) / Taking in a musical at Madrid's Gran Vía Theatre / Going out for drinks or coffee at any of the countless bars and cafés in the Chueca District / Visiting Madrid's three most important museums: the Prado, the Thyssen Bornemisza and the Reina Sofía.

HOW TO GET THERE

FROM THE AIRPORT

From the Barajas Airport, you may take a taxi or opt for the tube (Metro). If taking the Metro, take Line 8 (the pink line, towards Mar de Cristal) to the Nuevos Ministerios stop. There, you will connect with Line 6 (the grey line, towards Moncloa), and get off at the Cuatro Caminos stop. Finally, take Line 1 (the blue line towards Valdecarros) until you come to the Gran Vía stop.

GETTING AROUND THE CITY ON PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Bus lines: Lines 10, 151 and 12 all stop at the Plaza de Sol.
Lines 5 and 120 will leave you in the Plaza de Antón Martín, just 5 minutes away from the hotel. The closest Metro stops are Line 1 (blue line) and Line 5 (green line). Be sure to get off at the Gran Vía stop.

